

A BIT ON THE CITY SIDE
County Clerk Sterling D. Shrock in an appearance before the county board of supervisors this morning unknowingly, perhaps, unveiled the best method to fight the Russian menace.

He read in loud, clear tones, excerpts from a pro-Soviet pamphlet and then watched the twisted words gather laughs and arouse anger among his listeners. In other words, he dragged the "menace" right out into the open and saw it fall flat on its face of its sheer ridiculousness.

THE BOOKLET was among a number mailed to Clerk Shrock, who was to have distributed them to the supervisors. In big black type the booklet was entitled: "World Peace. Reconstruction and Readjustment." That's as far as Clerk Shrock got. It sounded innocent enough.

A Dixon Evening Telegraph reporter spotted the booklets lying on the counter in his office, read a few paragraphs and saw clearly that it was pro-Soviet propaganda. He mentioned it to Shrock and the red-faced clerk whisked them off to a wastebasket. That is, all but the one he read from in his appearance before the board.

"THEY SAY RUSSIA is a police state and a dictatorship," read Clerk Shrock. "Yes that is true to a certain extent. Russia has a dictatorship of the proletariat. The people rule. They do not tolerate gangsters and gamblers and grafters and swindlers and dope peddlers and . . ." The supervisors smiled.

Then Shrock read on: "Not even the wicked and worthless parasites who like to prey upon the body politic exist in Russia . . . The people of Russia are busy, helping each other, building up their country. They have not got time to be up to mischief."

The farther he read on Page 18, the fewer the smiles. "How can they send that stuff through the mails?" asked one. Another snorted, "Mischief? Ha! What about Korea?"

SCHROCK LAUNCHED into another paragraph: "Russia manages to keep law and order. Russia provides work and living for all who are physically and mentally able and young enough to work. The old and sick and disabled are tenderly taken care of and so are the children . . ."

"Russia probably has the most thorough educational system of any country on earth. That's why Russia is winning great victories without bloody warfare. Yes, winning without using bullets and shells and bombs."

"We in the United States could learn a good deal from the people's government in Russia. And millions here would be benefited if we followed Russia's example." And on and on and on.

WHEN THE COUNTY clerk finished, he explained that the pamphlets had been sent to him with instructions that they be passed out to the board of supervisors. He said that until the reporter had happened to read the contents, he had not known what was in the booklet.

"I wouldn't want anyone to think I'm a Communist," Shrock said.

WE ARE NOT only certain that Shrock is NOT a Communist, but also certain that he has done his constituents a heap of good by forthrightly meeting an embarrassing situation.

Mows Lawns to Get Swim Suit; Now It's Stolen

Days of mowing lawns to earn money for a new swimming suit have been marked off as a complete loss by 10-year-old Edward Gasser.

Ed's mother, Mrs. Rudolph Gasser, 723 E. Chamberlain st., said this morning that Ed had been mowing lawns in the neighborhood because he wanted to buy a new swim suit—"one of those shiny ones."

Finally, he had enough money saved and bought a suit and wore it swimming in the municipal pool yesterday afternoon. Ed's mother had told him to leave the water about 3:30 o'clock but that he could watch for awhile after that.

According to mom's instructions, Ed left the pool about 3:30. He changed his clothes and placed his new swimming suit on his bicycle while he watched others swim for a few minutes.

Apparently yesterday was the first and last time Ed will wear the suit.

When he returned to his bicycle he found the new swimming suit gone.

Uncover POW Plot to Seize Koje Island

Paratroopers Make Shambles Of Prison Camp

31 Prisoners Slain, 139 Wounded During Battle in Compound

KOJE ISLAND, KOREA—(AP)—Tough U. S. paratroopers today cracked Communist prisoner of war rebellion in a rip-snorting 2½ hour battle that made a shambles of notorious Compound 76 and uncovered a prisoner plot to seize the island.

Thirty-one prisoners were killed and 139 wounded in the bloody fighting. Autopsies showed that 12 prisoners were killed by their fellow Reds with crude spears.

American Killed
One American was killed and 11 were wounded. The slain American had been speared to death and not killed by a concussion grenade as first reported. Only one American was seriously wounded. Seven returned to duty and the others will go back in a few days.

The fight broke out when the POWs disobeyed orders to move peaceably into new, smaller enclosures of about 500 each.

U. S. army intelligence officers found a master plan in 76 to liberate all 80,000 Communist prisoners held on Kojé. It called for the Reds to seize the island and its U. N. garrison and turn its weapons against any force from the mainland. Further details were withheld.

No Shots Fired
Not a shot was fired in the barbed wire encircled battlefield. The 750 Americans of the "Angels From Hell" combat team used concussion grenades, bayonets, tear gas and fists to subdue the rebellious 6,400 North Koreans. The Reds were armed with spears, knives, rocks and firebombs.

Brig. Gen. Haydon L. Boatner, the Koje commander, had given the Reds a chance to move to the new quarters peacefully. Die-hard Communist leaders chose to fight. Boatner met the resistance with force in his campaign to gain uncontested control over the prison pens.

The wild, swirling battle was witnessed by prisoners of two other unruly compounds—78 and 77.

Prisoners Move
Shortly after the fight ended Boatner told prisoners in 78 to get ready to be moved—or else. The prisoners obeyed meekly. Leaders in Compound 77 sent word that they would be ready to move on Boatner's command. They will be moved tomorrow.

Boatner was jubilant over the way the paratroopers from the 187th Airborne regimental combat team quelled the Reds. He said: "The discipline of the troops was superb. I have an official report that not one shot was fired in (Continued on Page 6)

Neighbors Say Dogs Howl; Ask Owner's Arrest

OREGON—The neighbors of LeRoy Wells, Leaf River, don't think much of his dogs.

In fact they have gone to the law in Ogle county, charging that Wells' dogs are disturbing their peace.

In more detail the complaint charges that Wells caused the trouble "by permitting his dogs to bark loud and continuously and at long intervals."

Justice of the Peace H. H. Todd, Oregon, heard the complaint Sunday. Attorney Wayne Bettner was counsel for the state. John T. Crowell was attorney for Wells. Crowell appealed the case to the circuit court.

Those who signed the complaint against Wells are Albert S. Myers, Sadie Myers, Mrs. Sprecher, Richard Erickson and J. M. Beck, all of Leaf River.

Two Slightly Hurt As Lumber Falls

Two workers suffered "minor" injuries this morning at the Boyd Casket Co. when lumber fell from a truck and pinned them to the ground.

Company officials would not release the names of the injured men. A spokesman said they were treated by a doctor. He described the injuries as "minor."

He said about 20 boards fell.

Phantom Fires At Cop, Eludes Police Block

Marengo Policeman Reports Gunman Shoots at Dawn

MARENGO, ILL.—(AP)—A shoot-and-run gunman who has terrorized motorists on Illinois highways during the past 10 days today selected a Marengo policeman for his 15th target.

Policeman Lawrence Brown, 38, said he was fired at from a speeding dark colored automobile at dawn while patrolling Marengo streets in a squad car.

Brown said the gunman fired two shots, neither of which struck the squad car. He said he chased the car at speeds up to 90 miles an hour toward Elgin but lost it.

Eludes Police
Brown radioed state police at Elgin during the chase but they found no trace of the car.

Marengo is in McHenry county, some 50 miles northwest of Chicago.

At least 14 other motorists have reported being shot at by a phantom gunman on the state's highways. Two have suffered minor injuries.

The shootings occurred at widely scattered points from Volo, in Northern Illinois, to Belleville, near St. Louis.

Meanwhile, at Blue Island, Ill., a 30-year-old carpenter was charged with illegal possession of a firearm after being questioned about the phantom gunman.

He is Angelo Bovard, of 3438 Butler st., Steger, Ill.

Find Revolver
State police seeking a clue to the highway gunman arrested Bovard last night after finding a revolver in his two-toned green automobile.

He denied knowledge of the highway shootings.

Bovard's car was stopped by state police near Blue Island during a check of dark colored automobiles. They said a .32 caliber revolver was found in the car.

After questioning, Bovard was released on bond pending a court hearing Saturday on the gun charge.

2,000 Signed Up for Swim Classes Here

The first of 2,000 applicants will receive swimming lessons Wednesday at Dixon's Municipal swimming pool when this year's instruction program starts.

Sponsored by the Dixon chapter of the American Red Cross, the free lessons will be given by instructors, Mrs. Allen Boyd, Dick McCarthy, John Knelson and Tom Murphy.

The courses are open to all residents of Lee county.

While 2,000 applicants already have indicated they will participate in the program this summer, there still is time to enroll. New applications may be turned in at the time of the first lesson.

An instructors' course will be given at the pool July 7-15. It will be open to all in Northern Illinois who hold senior life saving certificates.

Further information on the swimming lessons may be obtained by calling the pool or Dick McCarthy, 3-4893.

Open Bids on Three-County Road Projects

Low bidders were announced today at Springfield on 53 highway projects in Lee, Ogle, Bureau and 55 other Illinois counties.

The proposed work calls for improvements of various types on 391 miles of state highways at a total estimate cost of $8,708,562.

The proposals, opened by the state division of highways, marked the seventh multi-million dollar road-letting since the first of the year.

Subject to final checking, apparent low bidders and other details of construction work in Lee, Ogle and Bureau counties are as follows:

Lee county—Bituminous surface treatment on State Road Issue Rt. 6, known as Alt. Rt. 30, for 1.67 miles east and 1.35 miles west from Dixon. Freeport Black Top Construction Co.

Ogle county—Bituminous surface treatment on Federal Aid Secondary Rt. 85 from Oregon west 4.09 miles, Freeport Black Top Construction Co.

Bureau county—Bituminous surface treatment on SBI Rt. 89, main street in Princeton and .98 mile north, and on SBI Rt. 7 for 1.07 miles east from Princeton, Freeport Black Top Construction Co.; and 1.45 miles bituminous surface treatment on gravel or crushed stone base on FAS Rt. 184 from Lee county line south toward LaMoille. Gen. M'Arthur Is Chosen as GOP Keynote

Taft Supporters Capture Victory; Martin Chairman

By JACK BELL.
CHICAGO — (AP) — Gen. Douglas MacArthur today was named keynote for the Republican national convention opening here July 7.

The choice of MacArthur was made on a voice vote in a closed meeting of the convention's 46-member arrangements committee.

Agrees to Accept
William Mylander, Republican publicity director, told reporters it was his understanding MacArthur had agreed to accept the assignment. The committee decided to split the keynote post away from that of temporary chairman and proceeded toward the election of a temporary chairman.

Walter S. Hallanan of West Virginia, a staunch Taft supporter, was chosen temporary chairman of the convention.

Mylander said the voice vote for Hallanan was unanimous. The West Virginian is a veteran member of the committee, having served on it since 1928.

Hallanan was put in nomination by Jacob France of Maryland. The nomination was seconded by Cyrus L. Phillip of Wisconsin.

Martin Chairman
Rep. Joseph Martin of Massachusetts, house minority leader, who has praised MacArthur as a possible GOP presidential nominee, was named unanimously as permanent chairman of the convention.

The choice of MacArthur was a victory for supporters of Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, leading candidate for the GOP presidential nomination. Although the designation of MacArthur had been protected by backers of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Taft's chief rival, Mylander said there were only scattered "No's" when the voice vote was taken.

Nine members of the committee arose in the closed session to propose MacArthur. The general was nominated by G. Mason Owlett, Pennsylvania national committeeman.

Those making seconding speeches included Cyrus L. Phillip of Wisconsin and Harrison E. Spangler of Iowa.

No Opposition
Mylander said that when National Chairman Guy G. Gabrielson called for remarks, there were no opposition speeches.

In nominating MacArthur, Owlett said MacArthur's speeches, since he was removed as Pacific commander by President Truman, "have convinced American citizens that he is endowed with a religious fervor in his concern for the future of the country and the world."

Taft's backers claimed sufficient strength to install a slate of convention officers almost wholly favoring their candidate.

MacArthur's job as keynote will be to start off the convention with a party-rallying speech.

National Chairman Guy G. Gabrielson declined comment on an

Truman Plan Gets Backing

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Truman's call for power to seize the struck steel industry got quick backing today from some lawmakers. But Senator Byrd (D-Va) and others said they would insist that Truman seek a Taft-Hartley injunction instead.

The issue, so far as the Senate is concerned, may be fought to a conclusion some time tonight. The senate is considering a variety of proposals for dealing with the steel situation, already offered as amendments to a bill to continue the wage-price controls program.

Senate Democratic Leader McFarland (Ariz) said he had no guess what congress will do, but it "ought to pass a seizure bill and get the steel mills" back to work.

Sen. Byrd said he would insist upon a Senate vote on use of the Taft-Hartley Act. He is author of an amendment to that act which would request the president to invoke terms of the Taft-Hartley Act.

Senate Republican Leader Bridges (NH) said he agreed with Byrd that a vote should come on use of the Taft-Hartley Act.

British Raise Siege of Radio Berlin After Seven-Day Grip

BERLIN — (AP)—British troops removed their barbed wire barricades from Russia's Radio Berlin headquarters early today, ending a dramatic seven-day siege which won several concessions from the Soviets.

The British said they lifted the blockade on the station inside their zone because it had served its purpose. Under its pressure, the Russians loosened their squeeze on West Berlin to the extent of yielding several border areas they had seized.

West Berliners were disappointed. The Communists made it clear they would claim a victory for themselves and not for the British.

Asks Congress For Power to Seize Plants

Taft-Hartley Would Be Ineffective, He Advises Lawmakers

WASHINGTON — (AP)—President Truman asked congress today to enact legislation quickly allowing the government to take over the nation's steel plants and operate them until the union-management dispute is settled.

The president made his request in a personal address to a joint house session, hastily summoned after the collapse last night of steel peace negotiations.

Expert Lists Hoof-to-Store Beef Markups

URBANA—A University of Illinois livestock marketing specialist today explained why farmers now are getting up to 36 cents a pound liveweight for beef animals and yet steaks are selling at over $1 a pound.

W. J. Willis says, to begin with, the animals are not all meat. For example, a 1,000-pound choice steer produces only about 600 pounds of meat. Then additional shrink and cutting losses leave only 840 pounds of retail beef.

Of this, 540 pounds, about 300 pounds, or over half, are represented by chuck roast, hamburger, stew meat and fat. All together these cuts sell on the average for about half as much per pound as steak.

Willis says when you also consider costs of slaughter, processing, transportation, retailing and other marketing functions, you can understand the spread between farm and store-counter prices.

Most of the actual mark-up per pound comes at the retail level, with the bulk of it in the form of labor and store overhead costs. Meat-packing plants usually make their operating expenses and profit

Swiss Queen, Son in Hiding From Father

LAUSANNE, Switzerland —(AP)—Queen Zeine of Jordan and her son, 17-year-old Crown Prince Hussein, were reported today in hiding somewhere in Switzerland from her husband, mentally ailing King Talal.

A senior Lausanne police official said the queen left her hotel in haste Friday, just a day before the out of the incredible parts of the carcass.

arrival of her husband from Paris. "We know where she has gone," the official added, "but it would be against Switzerland's national interest to say any more."

A friend of the royal family said the queen was "terribly afraid" her husband would find her. She and her son were reported living under heavy police guard.

King Talal, the son of the assassinated King Abdullah, has been under treatment for a nervous disorder at a clinic on Lake Geneva. He reportedly is subject to recurring periods of violence.

The University of Florida has been a member of the Southeastern Conference ever since that athletic group was founded in 1933.

Sec Link Between U. S. Reds, Huks In Philippines

SAN FRANCISCO —(AP)—Philippine and American authorities have uncovered a secret communication link between Communists in the United States and Communist Huks fighting in the Philippines, Philippines National Defense Secretary Ramon Magsaysay said today.

Coded messages smuggled into the islands through air lines serving Manila and San Francisco were intercepted, he said. The messages supplied evidence of a close tieup between the Reds, he asserted.

The 45-year-old defense secretary heads east today aboard a military air transport service plane for Washington. He will meet President Truman at the White House, Defense Secretary Robert Lovett, Assistant Secretary of State John Allison and the Secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force in a busy five-day visit.

Picks Strawberry, Disrupts Research

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Two men have been fined $50 each for disrupting an agriculture department research experiment by picking a few very important strawberries.

The berries were in a control patch at the department's experimental farm at Beltsville, Md. They were part of a test to determine what type plants yielded the biggest and best berries.

"Now we don't know where we are," said a department official, "our experiment is a loss for this year."

If the theft had not been detected, he said, "it's quite possible that we might have advised farmers throughout the United States to grow the wrong kind of strawberries."

Two More Gaming Stamps in Area

CHICAGO —(AP)—The total of federal gambling tax stamps issued in the Northern Illinois district has increased to 1,230.

The new figure for the 22-county area was reached yesterday with the purchase of 10 additional stamps. Five were bought by Cook county residents. The others included:

Bureau county—Joseph Hoscheid, business address, Arlington, residence, Cherry, and Jeanne M. Tallant, 100 E. Dakota st., Spring Valley.

LaSalle county—Vincent Koneczki, 137 First st., LaSalle, residence, 1120 Crosat st., LaSalle.

He Says It's True

MILTON, PA. — (AP) — Troy Musser, long-time Milton barber and sportsman, claims this fish story is the honest-to-gosh truth:

Musser was trying his luck over the weekend when a gust of wind lifted his hat off his head and carried it to the other side of the creek. The hat began moving downstream at a rapid, zig-zagging pace.

Investigating, he found a 10-inch trout hooked into one of the files stuck in the battered fedora. It was his only catch of the day.

UN Air Force Boss Sees No Red Buildup

SEOUL, Korea —(AP)—The top United Nations air commander in Korea said today his air spotters have found no sign of a buildup for a Communist offensive in Korea but "if we did we'd go after it."

Maj. Gen. Glen Barcus, new commander of the U.S. Fifth Air Force, told a news conference the air force knows the Reds have "a lot" of men in North Korea.

British Prime Minister Winston Churchill and United Nations headquarters in Tokyo said recently that the Reds have built up their forces in North Korea.

Barcus was asked if air sightings show signs of an all-out Communist ground offensive. He answered: "We haven't been able to see enough from the air to indicate any such thing. We haven't been able to detect any great massing of strength."

Governor Again Removes Himself From Demo Race

RICHMOND, VA. —(AP)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson again told newsmen yesterday he is not in the presidential race, then added, "you never saw anybody in your life who is less of a candidate than I am."

Stevenson received reporters at the governor's mansion, where he was a guest of Gov. Battle following an address to Hampden-Sydney college graduates.

He told newsmen he is interested only in his reelection as governor of Illinois and that "there is nothing I can talk about that relates to national issues."

Asked who he would support for the presidential nomination as a district delegate to the Democratic national convention, Stevenson said:

"It seems to me there are a lot of admirably qualified men in the Democratic party who aspire to be president, and that does not include me."

Stevenson said he thought the Democrats have a "very good chance" of winning the presidential election in November.

The Illinois governor spoke on foreign policy at Hampden-Sydney, where his great grandfather was president 100 years ago.

The college conferred an honorary degree of doctor of laws on Stevenson.

Bill Dole, recently named head football coach at Davidson College, is a graduate of West Virginia University.

Lutheran Merger May Be Blocked by Augustana Group

DES MOINES —(AP)—The 33rd annual synod of the Augustana Evangelical Lutheran church will open here tonight with a possibility that the group may not go along with a pending proposal for church unity unless it includes all eight general bodies of the National Lutheran Council.

A plan for merger of the five church bodies no federated with the American Lutheran Conference will be one of the major subjects before the six-day synod.

One of these bodies, the Evangelical Lutheran church, approved the merger at Minneapolis last week. The Lutheran Free church will act this week at Fargo, N. D., and the United Evangelical Lutheran church next week at Albert Lea, Minn. The American Lutheran church will consider the proposal next October.

While leaders of the Augustana synod were said to favor a merger resolution the synod's committee on unity raised a question. It was that the proposal embrace all bodies of the National Lutheran Council, including the United Lutheran Church in America, which has 2,000,000 members and is the largest Lutheran group in the country.

The Augustana church, with 460,000 members, is the fifth largest group.

Another matter to come before the synod will be a proposal to ask the government to include members of the clergy under the federal social security act. Up to now ministers have been excluded from the retirement law by their own request.

Warn Reds to Talk Business At Peace Parley

MUNSAN, Korea —(AP)—A United Nations spokesman said today Red truce negotiators will have to talk business without propaganda or the Allies again might recess the tightly deadlocked Korean armistice talks.

Negotiations, 11 months old today, resume tomorrow at Panmunjom at 11 a. m. (8 p. m. Tuesday CST) after a three-day recess called by the U. N. command over Communist protests.

Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckolls, U. N. command spokesman, said there is a possibility of another recess "after this respite if the propaganda barrage once again becomes intolerable."

The Red high command in a letter to Gen. Mark Clark, United Nations supreme commander, said: "You should know that what you cannot get on the battlefield you cannot get at the conference site."

Clark's headquarters in Tokyo said his reply would be made public when it is delivered to the Reds, presumably at Panmunjom tomorrow.

An armistice is stymied by the prisoner exchange issue. The U. N. command says not a single captured Red will be forced to return to Red rule. Only 70,000 of 169,000 captured Red soldiers and civilians have expressed a willingness to be repatriated. The Communists demand all their soldiers back regardless.

Ninth Grader Has Mustache, Barred From Schoolroom

BINGHAMTON, N. Y. —(AP)—The ninth grader shaved off his goatee but not his mustache—so he is on an enforced vacation.

Anthony Valda, 16, appeared at Christopher Columbus school yesterday wearing a week's growth on chin and lip. The Binghamton lad said he grew the whiskers for nearby Johnson City's 60th birthday celebration next month.

Principal James H. Galvin ordered him to shave. Anthony shaved off the goatee, but said he liked the mustache so well he might keep it.

School officials suspended him for an indefinite period, contending Anthony's actions "tended to disrupt classes."

Rob Supermarket Of $2,000 Cash

SPRINGFIELD — (AP) — Two bandits held up an A and P supermarket yesterday afternoon, escaping with $2,000 and possibly $6,000.

Police said the robbers were about 25 years old and both wore blue ball caps and blue jeans.

They forced Miss Ruth Miller, bookkeeper, and Store Manager R. J. Hoechst to give them the money from the cash boxes. Hoechst said at least $2,000 was taken but an audit would be required to determine the exact amount.

About 50 to 75 shoppers were in the store when the robbery occurred. The bandits worked so swiftly that patrons and employees in other parts of the store were not aware of anything unusual.

For Leaves

Reports from ROTO-BALER owners say that weather-resistant rolled bales contain more leaves. Livestock eat rolled hay better because it is soft, sweet and retains its natural color.

Here are some of the things farmers wanted to know:

Would rolled bales really shed showers? Would they handle and transport easily? Would livestock eat them without waste, fed whole or unrolled? Could straw for bedding be rolled out without shaking?

The ROTO-BALER has answered "yes" to each of these questions, satisfying farmers everywhere. Stop in and ask us for a free booklet on rolled bales and the ROTO-BALER.

ROTO-BALER is an Allis-Chalmers trademark.

Dixon Ag Student Third in Nation-Wide Essay Contest

Others From DHS Among Prize Winners

A Dixon high school vocational agriculture student has been named one of four third-place winners in a nation-wide essay contest, and three other DHS ag students have been chosen for fourth and fifth-place awards.

David Mayes, son of Herb Mayes, Rt. 3, has been awarded a third prize of $35 in the 22nd annual Swift High School Essay contest for agriculture students. The contest was sponsored by the packing firm of Swift & Co., Chicago.

Brian Stouffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Stouffer, Rt. 3, is one of ten fourth-place winners in the contest. He has been awarded $25.

Fifth-place prize money of $10 each was won by Duane Swarts and Richard Maronde Jr. Swarts is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Swarts, Rt. 1, and Maronde is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Maronde, 2116 First st. Both were graduated this spring.

Mayes and Stouffer will be seniors at DHS next term.

Essays in the contest dealt with processing and distribution of livestock and livestock products. A list of the 52 winners in the contest was received here yesterday.

Two students of George Reed, DHS ag teacher, in former years were winners in the 1949-50 Swift contest. They are Frederick Gonneman and David Hockman.

First place in the 1951-52 contest was won by a student from Manitowish, Wis., and second by a student from Rocky Gap, Va.

A student from La Moille, Richard A. Faber, was among sixth-place winners.

Here's How You Can Help Wildlife

AMBOY—Wild birds and animals are valuable to farmers for the part they play in helping to control pests. In addition, many wild birds and animals are valuable for their meat or fur.

Assistant Farm Adviser Arthur Seeds says that you can help promote the growth and increase various forms of wildlife by providing cover and feed. Often all you'll need to do is leave some of the natural cover rather than burning or cutting it.

Wild creatures have practically deserted many farms, and it isn't hard to see why, he says. With nearly all of the land on these farms under cultivation, there just aren't many places for the birds and animals to make their homes. Many woodlots have disappeared and hedges and brushy fence rows have been cleared out.

Adults as well as 4-H wildlife conservation project members can get more information about preserving farm wildlife by asking the farm adviser for a copy of Circular 690, or write directly to the College of Agriculture, Urbana, for a copy.

Finds Grassland Saves Feed Costs

URBANA—Grassland farming is profitable farming, as shown by the experience of Bob Stiff, Richland county dairyman and hog raiser. Farm Adviser Ed Barnes says Bob had 65 head of hogs on a 10-acre legume-grass pasture in late March. They were about ready for market at just over five months of age and had eaten one-third less protein supplement than in his dry-lot method.

News of the Rock River Grange

By BOB TOURTILLOTT

Committees are now at work on the "lawn social" to be held at "Mike" Stahls Saturday. This is being sponsored by the Rock River Grange.

Harriette Woessner, Gladys Bollman and LaNora Origiesen are in charge of cakes and pies. Murray Newcomer is in charge of entertainment and will also get the ice cream, and Mike Stahl and Sidney Buckaloo will be in charge of the grounds committee for the evening.

The secretary, Dorothy Newcomer, has had tickets printed and they have been distributed to as many members as possible. Now all we can do is hope for a nice, warm evening.

Remember the special meeting to be held Wednesday night for reading of applications for membership. This will end the present membership drive, and according to all reports the contest is running very close.

The Pawpaw Grange is progressing nicely with its membership drive. At its meeting last Friday they read applications for membership from two people, balloted on two others and gave the first and second degree to Hamilton and Kay Risetter.

Deputies and state officers throughout the state are busy making plans for the national convention to be held at Rockford in November. A convention of this size requires much planning and effort to make it a success.

Leaders from all over Northern Illinois met Sunday at the Jordan Grange north of Sterling. There were eight state officers present, including the state overseer, Frank Neffinger, and Les Carlson, a member of the state executive committee, chairman of the meeting.

There were 96 representatives present, with Boone and Winnebago counties leading with 15 apiece. Lee county was represented by 10 individuals, including R. D. Dale, Avery Merriman and Robert Tourtillott, masters of Palmyra, Pawpaw and Rock River Granges, respectively. Raymond Hecathorne, Lee county deputy, was also present.

Brother Dorsey Kirk, master of the Illinois State Grange, will be guest speaker tonight at Rockford Centennial celebration. He will talk at Beyer's stadium sometime between the hours of 7 and 8 p.m.

He is a well-known orator and his address should be well-worth hearing.

4-H'ers of Nine Counties to Attend Camp in Ogle County

ORGEON — White Eagle camp near Adeline in Ogle county is expected to be attended by more than 500 4-H boys and girls this summer from nine northwestern Illinois counties.

Ogle and Stephenson 4-H members will be first to attend the camp purchased only last year and presently in a long-term development program. Dates for Ogle and Stephenson county camping are from June 30 to July 5.

Camping periods for other counties include: Winnebago and Jo Daviess, July 7-12; Henry and Rock Island, July 14-19; and Whiteside, Carroll and Boone, July 21-26.

A district rural youth weekend camp also has been scheduled. It will be held July 26 and 27. And from July 28-30, Homemakers of the area will camp at White Eagle. District camps were held in state parks in the area for two years before a permanent site was bought near Adeline.

During recent years the 4-H camping program has developed into one of the outstanding activities for 4-H club members of northwestern Illinois.

Ogle county 4-H'ers may obtain information on enrolling and attending the camp from the Farm Bureau office at Oregon.

Production Test Completed on Cow Of Sterling Man

STERLING—With 437 pounds of butterfat and 10,523 pounds of milk testing 4.2 per cent to her credit, El-Rus Rock River Montvic Gwen, registered Holstein-Friesian cow owned by Dr. L. S. Reavley, Sterling, has completed a 333-day production test in official Herd Improvement Registry.

She was milked two times daily and was 4 years 11 months when she began her testing period. Her record averages approximately 15 quarts of milk daily for the period covered by her test.

Testing was supervised by the University of Illinois in cooperation with The Holstein-Friesian Association, of America, Brattleboro, Vt.

Hay fields heavily infested with spittlebugs should be cut a little earlier than ordinarily. Extra time should be given the hay to dry so that the spittle masses will not cause molding. In the past we have had very little infestation from spittlebugs on the second cutting.

I have received from Keith Hincheliff, professor of farm structures at the University of Illinois, a reference set of new midwest farmhouse plans. This set represents three basic plan types, free level farmhouses, multi-level farmhouses, and expandable farm houses. There are many possible adaptations of space and materials for each plan.

The price per hundredweight which the dairyman receives from milk depends in no small measure upon the fat test. For this reason dairymen frequently want to know why their herd test drops suddenly.

Since cows test higher toward the end of their lactation period than they do when production is heaviest, the drying up of one or more cows may cause the fat test of the herd to drop.

When milk yields go up the test goes down. There seems to be an inverse or opposite relation between milk yields and fat tests. Another example is the fact that the heaviest milk producing breeds of cattle have the lowest test.

Pay attention to fat yields rather than fat tests. It is the yield rather than the test that counts. For example, suppose that in March a herd produces 10,000 pounds of milk, testing 4 per cent fat. The total yield of butterfat would therefore be 10,000 times 4 per cent or 400 pounds.

In April, the test decreases to 3.6 per cent but production went up to 11,000 pounds. The total yield would therefore be 11,000 times 3.6 per cent, or 396 pounds, a difference of only 4 pounds. It is normal for milk yield to drop about 6 per cent a month, or 1.5 to 2 per cent a week, during the part of the lactation that follows peak production.

Marked increases in temperature and humidity normally cause a decrease in the fat test. When cows are subjected to severe changes in the weather there is often a marked change in the fat test.

Dairywomen sometimes skim some of the cream off milk for home use. That of course, lowers the fat test.

Turning cows onto pasture usually causes the fat test to go down. Supplemental feeding of grain or hay may help to keep it up. Cows that are in heavy flesh when they freshen usually test higher, especially for a month after calving.

Other causes of low tests are incomplete milking, disturbances at milking time, stillness, accident, injuries and such changes in management procedures.

MOVABLE WATER LINES

Plastic pipe, now becoming available from some well drillers and hardware stores, makes it easy for swine farmers to set up temporary, movable water lines to field water tanks.

Feed grain and extra minerals to your cows on spring pasture, but you can stop feeding protein supplements.

Movie People Predict Worst Is Over and They Will Live

Despite television, there are more motion picture theaters in operation now than a year ago due to a continuing boom in drive-ins.

The Council of Motion Picture organizations says 23,199 film theaters were in operation at the start of this year—a net gain of 79 over a year earlier. It's the highest total since the pre-depression peak of 23,344 in 1929.

But, citing statistics from the Department of Commerce and from Film's Daily Yearbook due out later this week, Compo discloses this significant fact: There was a gain of 828 drive-ins and a decline of 749 four-walled theaters during this year.

A spokesman emphasized two points, however. One, due to defense restrictions on materials, it has been much easier to build drive-ins than conventional theaters. Two, most of the new four-walled theaters have larger seating capacities than those that have been closing. He said a survey in the St. Louis area, for instance, showed 42 houses closed and 36 new ones opened in a five-year period, but the new ones had more total seats than those that closed.

Drive-ins, meanwhile, have mushroomed from insignificant numbers five or six years ago to a total, according to Film Daily, of 4,151 at the start of this year—or 18 per cent of all film theaters. In the first quarter of this year, 86 new drive-ins were opened, and 10 four-walled theaters.

Most industry officials are frank in admitting that television has had a lot to do with many of the theater closings and a decline in movie attendance from 80 to 90 million a week at the 1946-47 peak to around 55 million a week now.

Leonard Goldenson, president of United Paramount Theaters, says surveys definitely show attendance is down more in TV areas than in those without TV.

"Nevertheless," he adds, "continuing surveys show that inroads of television upon the box office moderate after the novelty and installment period of set ownership have passed."

Goldenson also makes a point of many others in the industry emphasize: During World War II and immediately afterward when Americans had high incomes and little to spend then on the movies boomed to abnormal levels that hardly could have been expected to last. And, he says, those conditions also "brought into operation hundreds of motion picture theaters which under any other conditions could not have operated."

While movie people are plenty worried about television, most of them predict the worst is over and that attendance will go up—although not to the boom levels of five and six years ago.

Jacoby on Canasta
Awareness Helps in Canasta

BY OSWALD JACOBY

"How do you know when the opponents are about to meld out?" asks a Pittsburgh reader. I seem to get stuck with a big fistful of cards very often, just when one of the opponents is about one play from out. Is there any sensible way to avoid this?"

This question strikes at the heart of good play. After all, Canasta is a pretty easy game to play. If you understand the basic principles of good play and if you have a good memory for cards you should be able to beat anybody, or at least break even.

Fortunately for the game, this just isn't so. You need more than the simple equipment just mentioned. You must possess awareness to beat other good players.

Let's take an elementary example. One opponent has six cards in his hand after quite a bit of melding has been done by both sides. At a certain point in the play, that opponent closes up his six cards and makes each draw from the stock pile without opening up his hand. What is going on?

Clearly, that player is in out position. He knows exactly what he needs to meld out, and he is too lazy to sit up and look at his hand. He is doing you a favor by warning you that he is drawing for out, and you would be very foolish if you ignored that warning.

If a tricky player acts in the same way, however, you don't assume that he is drawing for out. He probably has a hopeless hand and is trying to panic you by melding out. If he really were drawing for out he would avoid giving you the slightest warning.

How do you know the difference? It's just a question of awareness—quality that probably cannot be taught. Some very clever people don't know when an opponent is trying to fool them. It isn't only in Canasta that you sometimes have to wonder who is telling the truth.

Take another simple case. An experienced player has been discarding safely for several rounds into a frozen discard pile. Finally he goes into a long huddle and, with a full hand of 12 cards (including the card he just drawn) he discards the first queen of that hand. Is that a singleton, or does he have more queens?

The odds are very high he has more queens left in his hand. An experienced player will almost invariably discard from length in that situation.

Once in a blue moon an experienced player will recklessly discard a singleton. How do you know? If you're there at the table, and if you have great awareness, you know. Otherwise you must simply guess.

Court Orders 222 Slots To Be Destroyed

DANVILLE, Ill., (AP)—A federal court order issued yesterday directed the destruction of 222 slot machines seized by the FBI in raids March 5.

Federal Judge Casper Platt issued the order after the government filed suits seeking destruction of more than 1,000 of the devices. The machines, owned by dealers and fraternal organizations, were seized for alleged failure of the dealers to register with the U. S. Attorney General as required by the Johnson act.

Of the 222 ordered destroyed, 87 were seized in Danville.

The others include 46 owned by Fred Blaser and Sydney Kase, Kankakee, and six fraternal clubs in Bradley, Monmouth and Kankakee; 44 owned by Tim McGraw and five fraternal organizations, all of Champaign; and 45 owned by Lauren Hamm and two clubs at Shelbyville.

Judge Platt has not ruled in the cases involving the remainder of the machines seized.

The court order directs U. S. Marshal Carl Werner to destroy the machines within 20 days after June 6. Money from the machines, now impounded in various warehouses, is to be returned to the owners.

HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)— Behind the Screen: Sylvia Pampalini, the fiery Italian movie queen who claims Clark Gable, Ronald Coleman, Gary Cooper and other past-50 actors are "too old" for movie love making, can start blushing.

She's no jet-propelled whiz herself at celluloid romancing.

I tossed the 64-lira question about Sylvia's emoter rating at Vittorio Gassman, whose played love scenes with her in Italian films and on the set of his first Hollywood movie, "The Glass Wall."

Shelley Winter's ever lovin' and Hollywood's new heart-throb bet—MGM's ready to give him the triple-A romantic-star treatment—gave the question a diplomatic blush, but said:

"Love scenes with Sylvia? I think she'll play them much better when she has more experience."

Vittorio plays a displaced person who leads immigration officials on a big chase when he escapes from a boat in New York harbor in "The Glass Wall," an Ivan Torre Production with Maxwell Shane directing.

Seventeen days of chase scenes were filmed in Manhattan, including a big sequence in the United Nations building. Gloria Grahame, Ann Robinson and Robin Raymond are the dolls in the film.

On married life with fiery Shelley Winters, Vittorio declared: "It's wonderful."

Maureen O'Hara is predicting an acting career for her eight-year-old, Bronwyn—"She's a big ham." But, says mama, she won't flash the green light of approval until Bronwyn's 18.

Billy Curtis, the midget actor, hopes to land a role with Gary Cooper and 12 other actors over six feet tall in "Springfield Rifle." Billy's dreaming: "I'll be able to Downstage everybody."

The UI-Tony Curtis feud — he was taken off salary when he followed Janet Leigh to a Colorado location without studio permission—May cost him more than he suspects. The studio, I hear, is in no mood to forgive and forget in a hurry after his blast about unfair treatment.

Betty Hulton's contract with Paramount winds up in a year. She'll resign but only for one movie every 12 months, giving her a chance at TV and the opportunity for independent production with hubby Charles O'Curran.

The same film will have you seeing double when a couple of comics named Duke Mitchell and Sammy Petrillo flash on the screen. They're dead ringers for Martin and Lewis. Sammy looks so much like Jerry he even doubled for him on one of Jerry's TV shows.

The plot of Jennifer Jones' new film, "Ruby Gentry," finally is out. She plays a wild, sexy gal from the wrong side of the tracks who wrecks the lives of two men and kills her brother. The background is North Carolina and 50 per cent of the film will be made on location. Charleston Heaton and Karl Malden head the cast.

WESTBROOK PEGLER

Pegler Takes Another Look at CIO Director Timothy Flynn, FBI No. 84040

(Copyright, 1949, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

In order that you may better appreciate the shining virtue of that handwashing old hypocrite, Philip Murray, the president of the CIO, I present further information on the character of the inveterate jailbird, house-breaker and wife-beater, Timothy Flynn, who is, by Murray's personal appointment, regional director of the CIO for the Pacific coast. Over a period of five days, I made conscientious efforts to reach Brother Flynn by phone with a view to eliciting some discussion of his glorious rise from his first recorded crime, a sincere but clumsy effort, to the mighty seat which he now occupies with arbitrary powers over millions of Americans in and out of his union. I was unsuccessful. After the first essay in which my identity was mentioned to a lady in the CIO headquarters and she replied that he would be away for two days, the best I could get was a "do not answer."

The glib CIO mimeographs, which, by turns, have canonized and damned Harry Bridges, thus far have stood mute. Nor have I heard from James J. McElroy, secretary and treasurer of the New York Association of Catholic Trade Unionists, who reproved me on a broadcast for my heresy in doubting Murray's nobility. I had rather looked for a few phrases from Brother McElroy, but he has ignored a subject not beneath his notice but too big for it.

The powers of the boss unionists are vast beyond the utmost aspirations of their servant in the White House. Murray can appoint and remove at will servants with plenary powers to call strikes, impose boycotts and kick up riots amounting as the sainted Roosevelt said in the Inglewood case, to "violent insurrection." Bridges was one such. Notwithstanding Murray's passionate abuse of better Americans who exposed Bridges, he was shown to be a Communist devoted to the violent destruction of the American government.

In Bridges' place, with exquisite delicacy, Murray named a habitual crook and police character. This was such a raw effrontery that one wondered if this could be the same Tim Flynn. The doubt was not stilled until an official fingerprint test gave positive results. The Tim Flynn who runs the West Coast region of the CIO is the same poolroom bum and ex-convict whose frightened, unfortunate wife, in a statement in preparation for a successful divorce action in 1939, complained that he had tried to push her in front of an automobile so as to collect money from an insurance company; that on Oct. 8, 1938, after a wedding gala, he hit her a poke in the eye; that he never had supported her and that it had been necessary for her to work as a waitress ever since their daughter was three months old. They lived with her family because Mr. Murray's fine broth of a boy didn't provide a home for them and she had, of course, bought all the baby's clothes.

Another lady, a friend of Mrs. Flynn, said the gallant defender of Labor's Gains had slugged his wife on several occasions, blacked her eye and threatened to kill her, this last, perhaps, in the spirit of clean fun which animated him in his goonery in the Bethlehem Steel riots.

There is, in Worcester, a doubt as to Flynn's pugnacity. The cops, who had multiple dealings with him, do not remember him as a fighter. His police record contains no incident of that nature. His wife said Tim boasted of breaking a fellow's jaw but she didn't say she saw it.

By 1939, he was a splendid physical specimen, six feet two, weight 215, age 36, and outwardly, at least, in fine health. But the data which Murray released on March 9, 1948, when he got the West Coast job, was tongue-tied on the subject of any service in the armies of Franklin D. Roosevelt in defense of the Four Freedoms. The CIO News was likewise silent on the subject of his criminal record.

The powers invested in this beau ideal are not limited as Truman's are by moody rulings of the Supreme court. Truman cannot seize the steel mills, but Murray and Flynn don't have to.

They can drive the Americans off the job and for the enforcement of their wise decisions they may appeal to force by compulsion. More pointedly, all members, or subjects, of the CIO have a duty to turn out for picket duty and such other action as their gaudier or commissars may order. This fact was put on record in the New York City council of the CIO in a resolution published during the war which frankly said they would constitute a standing army of more than 100,000 minute men. Mike Quill, then, as now, the boss of this council, was to be generalissimo. Failure to comply and execute Quill's commands meant expulsion and perpetual disbarment from lawful toil.

The power to call on all New York CIO members to obey any order issued by Quill or any of his subordinates has never been waived. The same power belongs to Timothy Flynn, of San Francisco, FBI No. 84040; Massachusetts state bureau of identification No. 14884.

General Wrong Says Pace, UN Could Triumph

WASHINGTON—(AP)— Secretary of the Army Frank Pace, Jr., thoroughly disagrees with Maj. Gen. Daniel H. Hulselson that United Nations forces in Korea lack the manpower to face the Communist hordes and win the war.

"Any opinion to the effect that United Nations forces in Korea would be defeated if the Communists should attack," Pace declared, "is contrary to everything that our highest military leaders in the field have to report."

The secretary was commenting on an interview in Los Angeles by Hulselson, a reserve officer who is returning to civilian life after 21 months active duty, including service commander of the 40th division in Korea.

Hulselson, who said in his original interview, "I'm not sure why we're even fighting," told reporters later: "Secretary Pace is a fine gentleman, and as secretary undoubtedly has access to information not available to a poor old broken-down commander just back from Korea. I was speaking only from personal experience."

An oil company executive until his recall to duty, Hulselson said he expects to be out of the army within two or three days.

Premature Baby, Thought Dead, Returns to Life

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—A premature baby girl continued her struggle for life in Einstein Medical center today after being pronounced dead and wrapped in a newspaper for more than an hour.

The two-and-a-half pound infant was born prematurely Sunday night to Mrs. Catherine Hughes, 19, of Minersville, Pa., while visiting a sister here.

The baby arrived before either ambulance or physician could be summoned. Her father, Thomas, 22, said an obstetrician subsequently pronounced the child "lifeless."

Hughes said he then wrapped the baby's body in a newspaper where it remained for an hour before a police officer, making a routine report of the death, heard the baby scratching on the paper cover.

Physicians said her condition is "fair." They suggested it was possible the warmth of the paper or the motions of wrapping her brought "life" to the infant.

Be Fair With Your Friends If You Want to Keep Them

If you want to keep your friends, don't make any of the following a habit:

Unloading all your small troubles on them, so that when they hear your voice on the telephone they are pretty sure they are in for a half hour of sympathizing with you.

Discussing one friend's shortcomings with another. That is a tip-off that you aren't loyal to your friends. Besides, the criticisms you utter in the belief that they won't be passed on, all too often get back to the friend you criticized.

Wearing a long face. If you want people to enjoy your company, you've got to give them something to enjoy.

Trying to outdo them. If you've always got to outshine your friends in order to be happy, they'll soon become competitors instead of friends.

Your Envy Will Show Itself

Resenting the good fortune that now and then comes to your friends. If you aren't really pleased when a friend gets a break, your envy will show itself in some little way. If you are honestly pleased, your pleasure will show just as surely.

Telling your friends how they ought to solve their problems. Most adults resent any inference that they can't handle their own affairs, and the "if-I-were-you" advice that friends often feel tempted to give each other usually isn't appreciated.

Always taking instead of giving, or vice versa. To be a good friend you must be ready to help out when your help is needed and to accept a friend's help when it is offered.

Taking up too much of a friend's

Prayer for TODAY

Teach us O God, to live together as peoples and nations in mutual understanding and good will. Deliver us from all selfishness, bigotry, racial and national pride. Create within us a will to share our skills, also a spirit of brotherhood. Out of the many nations and people create a new spiritual unity in peace; in Christ's Name. Amen.

—John S. Stamm, Harrisburg, Pa., bishop, Evangelical United Brethren Church.

What's Right?

Friends drop by for an evening and though they have never expressed any interest in home movies, you have some new ones of your children you would like to show them.

WRONG: Spend the evening showing home movies.

RIGHT: Realize that home movies of children are rarely appreciated by anyone but the family—and save your home movies for family nights.

Pupils of North Central School Report Busy Times

Busy times were had during the closing days and weeks of the North Central school term. Among the events happening were: student council election, an operetta, an assembly program, the eighth grade banquet, May PTA meeting, field trips and commencement.

Student Council election, which included primaries, campaigning, and the election itself, elected Otto Gerlach, president; Aaron Johnson, vice president; and Stewart Keeley, secretary for next school term.

Jim Kjellgaard, visiting author, was installed as honorary vice president of North Central Student Council, at the time of the installation of the North Central officers, and gave a short talk to the entire assembly.

The Operetta, "Aunt Drusilla's Garden," presented, Sandra Gallagher, Carolyn Keeley, Patricia Nolte, Richard Hess, Buddy Gerlach, Paul Akerman, Chara Wagner, and groups of boys and girls from both seventh grades, taking part. Miss Margaret Olgard, city music supervisor, played the accompaniments.

Assembly Program
"Our Great, Big, Beautiful World" an assembly program by Miss Nan Richard's fifth grade presented Jim Myers, as Mr. World. In the playlet, the three children, Lynn Dewey, John Cully and Judy Schreiner. Other children taking part were: David Tagge, Carolyn Coss, Bobby Hargraves, Rickey Rorer, Bob LaCour, Ronnie Gaul, Becky Reeder, Janice Krug, Carol Lee Horton, Judy Leer, Louise Wolf, Sally Utley, Stuart Keeley, Pamela Witzleb, Julia Weitzel, Sally McGinnis, John McLane, Karl McCordie, Victor Eichler, Jr., John Wickler, Janet Wolf, and Janice Krug.

The eighth grade banquet planned by the students, faculty members, and parents of the graduating classes was held at Loveland Community House, and carried out an Hawaiian theme. Fifty-eight graduates, teachers, Mrs. Theodore Peterson, Reuben Krakow; Mrs. Margaret Swim, Mrs. H. C. Reeder and Miss Lillian Rasmussen, Miss Mollie Duffy, principal, Supt. and Mrs. Lancaster and Miss Olgard also attended.

The May P.T.A. meeting featured an afternoon tea, and installation of officers, with reports of the district convention attended by Dixon representative Mrs. Eugene Gordon. Dick and Dave Thomas played instrumental solos which they used in county and regional music festivals this spring, winning honors.

Historical Pictures
Historical pictures, made and prepared by Mrs. Eva Weinrich and Mrs. Swim were shown and explained in a special assembly program. They have been the sponsors for the Junior Historical Society, made up of seventh and eighth grade students interested in local history, for a number of years. Each year several of the members' compositions have been accepted and printed in the Junior Historical Magazine. This year's contributions were accepted from Bobby Swim and Nancy Rorer who also won the Governor's Award, Garry Reeder, Kay Lund, Richard Johnston, and Jim Schrader. Miss Mollie Duffy, school principal, Mr. and Mrs. John Rorer and Charles Swim accompanied these young people to Springfield where honors were given.

Linda Harvey won the picture awarded to the winning grade-school students in the Dixon Woman's club art contest this spring. Linda's entry, "The Jolly Postman," was considered outstanding, and the picture award will be her contribution to the new school.

Mrs. Weinrich's Fourth grade took a field trip and visited points of historical interest in Dixon, including the Lee County Historical museum at Loveland Community House.

Track Awards

Krakow presented track awards to winners of the spring track meet. Letter awards were also given during the same assembly, to John Nelles, Garry Reeder, Bud Melvin, Don Funch, Dave Thomas, Jim Schroeder, Henry Kelle, Warren Stultz, Don Alter, Glen Iosebrook, Frank Gronberg, Dallas Holverson, Brent Anderson, John Richardson, Dick Thomas, Tom Gower, Aaron Johnson, and Denny Kline.

Girls receiving letter awards for school service included Peggy Marshall, Kay Lund, Jackie Whitmer, Martha Lindquist, Mary Gower, Nancy Schroeder, Jeanne Walker, Georgiana Stiles, Nancy Rorer, and Linda Stackhouse.

Scout parties and class-room picnics were the order of the day for the past few weeks. Graduating exercises were Tuesday, June 3.

Today's Question: Will Bums Fade Again?

Dodgers Top NL Race by Five Games

But Memories of '51 Collapse Still Linger in Flatbush

(By The Associated Press)
If the Brooklyn Dodgers are not careful, they may find themselves 13½ games in front of the New York Giants on Aug. 11.

Even so, Manager Charlie Dressen of the dauntless Dodgers is willing to gamble with such a long lead. He agrees that the Giants' unprecedented 1951 rush to the top in a playoff victory over the Braves was nothing short of a miracle. And miracles just don't happen twice in a row this modern day and age.

Bums Play Better
Currently, the Dodgers are playing a better brand of baseball than they did at a corresponding time a year ago. They're playing remarkable .761 ball with 35 victories in 46 games. Last year they were 30-16 for .652—more than 100 points lower.

They've dropped just one of their 10 games on this second Western swing. They lead the second-place Giants by five games.

Last night's 6-2 triumph over the Cardinals in St. Louis ran Brooklyn's latest winning streak to eight in a row.

The Dodgers had to come from behind to win. Cloyd Boyer blanked them for six innings but the Brooks tied the score at 2-2 in the seventh when Peeewe Reese singled with the bases loaded. Reliever Alpha Brazilzoued the fire but got burned in the eighth when Roy Campanella and Carl Furillo slammed two-run homers. Each homer followed a base on balls. Furillo hit his four-bagger off Jack Crimian. It was Brazilz's first loss.

Musial Homers
Homers by Stan Musial and Dick Sisler accounted for the Redbird tallies.

Boston's Red Sox also solidified their first place hold, opening up a one-game margin over the second place New York Yankees by Vanquishing the Detroit Tigers, 9-8.

CUBS SNUB INJURIES
CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Cubs, riding high in third place despite an injury bugaboo that has shadowed them since the season started, will open a three-game series at Wrigley field with the sixth-place Philadelphia Phillies today.

Either Hal Jeffcoat, a weak hitter, or Bob Addis will be in centerfield for the Cubs in place of Frank Baumholtz. Baumholtz, a .321 slouter, suffered a broken hand bone when struck by a pitch by Warren Spahn in Sunday's tussle with the Boston Braves. He has been placed on the disabled list.

Hospital List Big
He will be ineligible for a minimum of 30 days.

The injury jinx first claimed second-baseman Eddie Miksis this spring with a charley horse. Shortstop Roy Smalley went out with a similar ailment. Baumholtz wrenched a right shoulder May 17 and was sidelined for almost two weeks. Last week Bob Ramazzotti, filling in a second, was hobbled with a bad knee.

Ramazzotti will be back in uniform today.

The Phillies have assigned Carl Drews (2-5) to face lefty Paul Miner (5-1) in today's series opener. The Chicago White Sox game at Washington was rained out yesterday.

The Sox start a series against the Athletics in Philadelphia tonight, sending Billy Pierce (5-5) against the Nats' Bob Hooper (1-5).

Milwaukee, the American Association leader, defeated the Cubs, 4-3, in an exhibition game last night.

FIGHTS MONDAY NIGHT
BROOKLYN—Pierre Lambert, 155½, France, outpointed George Small, 159, New York (10).

BROOKLYN—Tommy Bazzano, 150, Middletown, Conn., outpointed Ted Murray, 146½, New York (5).

Greatest, He Says

GREATEST GOLFER?—Count Yogi, self-styled golf expert who claims he can beat any of the great golfers including Sam Snead and Ben Hogan, demonstrates his backswing (note hand in fixed position) to illustrate his method of "control" golfing. The Count claims, among other things, to have posted the lowest 18-hole score ever recorded on a full scale golf course—29-26-55. Why, then, doesn't he turn pro? "I've been barred" the Arabian-robed count explains patiently, "because I debunk the teachings of the professionals. The Count is visiting San Francisco.

Here's a Modeset Fisherwoman

Knoxville, Tenn.—(AP)—Butcher John Sherrod nearly keeled over yesterday when Miss Emma Poff asked him to cut up a walleyed pike weighing 32 pounds, seven ounces. She said she had pulled the monster from nearby Norris Lake last Saturday.

Sherrod told her that she probably had hooked the world's record walleye and urged her to have it weighed officially. Miss Poff put the fish in her home freezer and declined to discuss it further.

Wisconsin Shortstop Termed Best in Big 10 for 20 Years

CHICAGO, (AP)—Harvey Kuenn, Wisconsin shortstop who was signed Sunday for a reported $55,000 bonus by the Detroit Tigers, is rated by Freddie Lindstrom as the best player ever turned out by the Big Ten in the last 20 years.

Lindstrom, former major leaguer who now coaches Northwestern, said that "I rate Kuenn the greatest prospect to appear in the conference in my time. He can hit and throw and he's fast. He has all the qualities to make the majors."

Kuenn batted .444 for the season, topping the Big Ten in hits, runs batted in, doubles, triples, total bases and runs scored.

T. Bettenhausen To Quit Racing

CHICAGO, (AP)—Fourteen years and 20 serious accidents later, Melvin (Tony) Bettenhausen, famed big car racing driver, is calling it quits.

The 35-year-old father of four limit his driving to trips to the grocery store and one annual race track outing, the 500 mile classic at Indianapolis.

Among Bettenhausen's 20 serious crashes was one in DuQuoin, Ill., in 1948 that hospitalized him with burns for one month.

Talbert Captain

NEW YORK, (AP)—Billy Talbert of New York City, one of the nation's greatest doubles players, was named today to captain the United States Davis Cup team against Japan in the first round of American zone play at Cincinnati July 25-26.

Talbert, 33, has won the National men's doubles championship four times with Gardner Mulloy and the mixed doubles four times with Mrs. Margaret Osborne DuPont.

To Coach Oilers

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP)—University of North Carolina's basketball coach, Tom Scott, announced yesterday that he is resigning to take over as coach of the AAU Phillips Petroleum "66" Oilers.

Scott, who has coached at North Carolina for the last six years said the job with the perennial champs of the amateur loop was an "opportunity too good to pass up."

Study Plans For Midwest Cage Loop

CHICAGO, (AP)—Organizational plans are being studied for a new Midwest intercollegiate basketball conference of at least six schools.

Representatives of Notre Dame, Marquette, Louisville, Loyola of Chicago, De Paul and Bradley yesterday held another in a series of meetings to study a general operational plan. The study will continue with the group meeting again Sept. 15.

If the conference is formed, it will be ready for the 1952-53 basketball season.

Name Sanders to All-Star Staff

CHICAGO, (AP)—Henry R. (Red) Sanders, head coach at UCLA, is the first member named to Bobby Dodd's staff that will direct the college football All-Stars against the Los Angeles Rams Aug. 15.

Dodd, Georgia Tech mentor, was named head coach of the Collegians several weeks ago. Three more assistants are to be appointed.

MONDAY'S STARS

BATTING: Don Lenhardt, Tigers—Drove in five Detroit runs with a single and his third grand slam homer of the season, against his former Red Sox mates, but it was not enough as Boston won a 9-8 slugfest.

PITCHING: Joe Black, Dodgers—Pitched three innings of shutout relief ball to gain credit for Brooklyn's comeback 6-2 win over the St. Louis Cardinals.

GIANTS WANT WILLIE BACK

BY GALE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—It would, as a matter of fact, have been plain remarkable if the New York Giants had not gone into at least a temporary decline after losing Willie Mays to the army. The National league champions will be lucky if it proves only temporary.

Almost from the day he stepped into the lineup just over a year ago, fresh from Minneapolis, Willie became a sort of symbol to Leo Durocher's team. Here was a kid so gifted that no one could even guess at the heights he might scale.

The Giants adopted Willie, and Willie adopted the Giants. The veterans of the club laughed when he ran out from under his cap on the bases and ribbed him like a bumpkin in the locker room, but when Willie wasn't around they told you he was making catches out in centerfield and throws to the plate probably never excelled, if matched, in the history of the game.

His batting fell off badly toward the end, but there likely would have been a team insurer if Durocher had benched him.

It might be difficult to understand how the loss of one player can drastically affect the fortunes of a club so solidly equipped with stars as the Giants. Those who have watched the team play every game since Mays left cannot place their fingers on a single play or a single situation where the presence of Willie in the lineup might have altered the result, turned defeat into victory.

All anyone knows is that the Giants haven't looked like pennant winners since Willie went away.

St. Bede Has New Necciai In Peoplis

By FRANK METZINGER
(LaSalle News-Tribune Sports Editor)

PERU, Ill. (AP)—Few high school pitchers can match the two-year record of Matty Peoplis, southpaw of St. Bede academy.

Matty, who completed his prep career this year, compiled an amazing earned run average of 0.81 for the seasons of 1951 and 1952.

For the two campaigns, Peoplis hurled 89 innings, allowed only 28 hits, 31 runs, only eight of which were earned. He struck out 172 batters, nearly two an inning.

He lost only three games in his high school career and none was tougher than the one this spring in the district tournament. Streator beat him, 1-0 and made only one hit which did not figure in the scoring.

Currently half a dozen major league clubs are on Peoplis' trail, but as yet he has not signed. Among teams looking him over are the White Sox, Braves, Phillies, Browns and Cardinals.

Peoplis has joined the LaSalle city team in the amateur Illinois Valley league and in two starts defeated Ottawa on five hits, stopped Oglesby with two, and fanned 32 batters.

Last year's champion of Amvet junior baseball play in the Minor league, Good Luck Margarine, lost its opening game of the season Monday to Hey Brothers, 8-2, as the new season opened.

Laddy Canfield pitched effectively for the Hey field to achieve the victory.

In the opening Major league game, Howard Mighall pitched Raynor Manufacturing to an 18-1 decision over Coss Iceles.

A third game—between Lincoln Lanes and Quality Oil in the Minor league—was not held because of a misunderstanding and will be rescheduled for later this season.

HUGH'S VIEWS OF SPORTS

BY HUGH HUGH

The decision of Len Skoglund, Rochelle basketball coach, to step down from his varsity coaching duties at Rochelle will rob the North Central conference of one of its better head basketball men.

SKOGLUND, A MILD-MANNERED mentor, seemingly has held up well under the strain of 17 years of basketball coaching. To look at him you wouldn't think he's been in the business that long. Skoglund has a seemingly-perennial boyish appearance that makes him look more like 28 than the 38 years to which he admits.

It was back in 1935, shortly after he graduated from Northern Illinois State Teachers college in his native DeKalb, that Skoglund first started coaching basketball in a town called Webster City, Ia.

LEN SPENT ONE YEAR coaching basketball in Polo. That was in 1936-37, and if you don't think that was quite some time ago as far as style of basketball play is concerned, then look up the score of the first Polo-Oregon game that season. (To save you the trouble and irritation of such a suggestion, the score was: Polo 12, Oregon 5.) Players on that Polo team were Ralph Kroh, Jack Aldrich, Wayne Thorstensen, James Schryver, Lloyd Woodruff, George Kaufman, Kenneth Fisher, the late Jack Savage, Kenneth Fouke and Rae Honland.

It was in that year, 1937, incidentally, that Mt. Morris won its only state high school tournament victory over a Skoglund-coached team. The Mounters defeated Polo, 26-13, in the district tourney that year.

MAYBE THAT WAS before Skoglund got his reputation as a giant killer among basketball coaches. Come to think of it, the last two of the three years Skoglund has been head coach at Rochelle helped build that reputation—mostly at the expense of Mt. Morris.

Two years ago Len's Rochelle team, with Jan Frisch and Mal Bushnell leading the way, knocked right on the door of the state finals before the eventual state champions (and one of the top championship teams of all time) the Freeport Pretzels, eliminated the Hubs in the sectional finals in Rockford.

BEFORE THAT, however, Bushnell-Frisch-Skoglund, et al., had broken a big Mt. Morris winning streak in the regional finals at Rochelle, whipping the Mounters, 62-51.

This year must have been a trying one at times for Skoglund. He saw a promising Rochelle team fall apart in mid-season (with uninvited help from injuries), finally reaching the extreme depths by losing to Mt. Morris, 72-39, on Jan. 12.

BUT THE FINAL, and brightest part of the Skoglund "giant-killer" story hardly needs to be retold. It concerns, of course, the final game in the Mt. Morris regional tourney this season when Skoglund's team, the same club that lost to Mt. Morris, 72-39, on Jan. 12, broke the hearts of 1,000 Mt. Morris basketball fanatics with a victory that was anything but a fluke.

Yes, Skoglund will be missed. They say Dick Haselton (formerly at Byron, now at Geneseo, and a Hometown home-town boy) may replace Skoglund at Rochelle. If he does, the only thing the Mt. Morris fans ask is that Skoglund's magic isn't transferable.

Federal Jury Acquits Smyth, Third Collector To Be Tried

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—James G. Smyth, third of the scandal riddled internal revenue bureau's ousted collectors to be tried, was acquitted of backdating his own 1945 income tax returns to defraud the government.

Two other ousted collectors — Dennis W. Delaney of Boston and James P. Finnegan of St. Louis — were convicted earlier this year.

A federal court jury of eight women and four men last night acquitted Smyth of three charges after he and others testified his returns were duplicates, filed to replace lost originals.

The nattily dressed deposed collector for Northern California commented:

"I'm So Happy"
"I'm so happy. One of those trials is enough for a lifetime."
However, two other indictments remain against Smyth.

Smyth was dismissed by President Truman Nov. 28 on charges of "failing to manage his office properly" after a federal grand jury was called to investigate reported scandals in his department. He then was charged with backdating returns for himself and his wife in an effort to evade $102 in penalties and interest.

The accusations of an improperly managed office led to indictments against several Smyth aides. His ousted chief deputy, Paul V. Doyle, awaits trial on a charge of backdating returns for three estates.

Two other former Smyth aides and a stock salesman were convicted recently of conspiring to defraud the government by promising immunity from tax fraud prosecution. They are Ernest M. (Mike) Schino, discharged field deputy here; Patrick Mooney, retired chief field deputy for Nevada, and Martin M. Hartman, sales-

Smyth was the only one of the three ousted collectors to be freed. Dooney was sentenced Jan. 29 to two years in prison and fined $10,500 for accepting bribes while collector in Boston.

Finnegan was sentenced March 24 to two years' imprisonment and fined $10,000 for misconduct while St. Louis collector.

Mad at the Ump, Convict Sits on Prison Girders

JOLIET, ILL.—(AP)—A stateville prison convict ended an all-day perch on a girder 60 feet above the prison's mess hall yesterday after the prison chaplain convinced him he should come down.

Marshall Parille, 25, shinnied up a steam pipe while prisoners were eating breakfast. He reached a rafter directly under the mess hall's glass roof and began taunting guards. For more than nine hours he ignored guards' orders to come down but finally obeyed the request of the Chaplain, Rev. Jervase Brinkman, and slid down the steam pipe.

Warden Joseph E. Ragen said Parille told him he was angry about a decision in Sunday's Chicago White Sox-Washington Senators baseball game in Washington.

Ragen said Parille was seeking publicity. Parille, of Chicago, is serving 15 years to life for armed robbery. He was sentenced to Stateville last August.

12 Injured as 250 Pipeline Workers Riot

VANCEBURG, Ky.—(AP)—About 50 state and county officers were called in today to preserve order in an isolated Pipeline project invaded yesterday by 250 men who wrecked heavy equipment.

Ten to 12 workers were reported injured, none seriously. The trouble was said to have arisen over a union's attempt to organize the gas line workers. The men attacked workers, took over the bulldozers to push six trucks over an embankment to destruction, wrecked several tractors and bulldozers and broke out windshields of other vehicles, officers reported. Damage was estimated at $25,000.

Deputy Sheriff Newell E. Rudder said county officers and state policemen were called, but the unidentified attackers had vanished before they arrived. The deputy said the invaders arrived and left in about 60 automobiles.

D. B. Shrub(a superintendent for the Zachary Construction Co. estimated that 250 men had attacked his workers and said it was an apparent attempt to scare off his non-union employees. He said there had been an effort to organize his men. He added that he had used non-union workers since starting the project a year ago.

Shrub identified the union as local 798, AFL operating engineers.

Recommend X-Ray On Heavy Smokers To Check Cancer

CHICAGO —(AP)—Twice-a-year X-ray examinations by middle-aged men who are heavy smokers were recommended today by a Washington, D. C., doctor as a means of improving the attack on lung cancer.

Declaring that there is a higher proportion of lung cancer among heavy smokers than among non-smokers, Dr. J. Winthrop Peabody said he believed such an X-ray procedure would assure spotting any such cancers early enough to allow successful surgical operation.

"Until this is done," the Georgetown university doctor told the annual meeting of the American Medical association, "mortality (from lung cancer) will continue to be high."

Stress Value of Literature at WSCS Meeting

ELDENA—The WSCS of the Evangelical United Brethren church of Eldena met at the church Thursday afternoon to study the topic "Sharing the Good News." With the emphasis on the importance of reading good literature, the entire program was based on the hymn "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations."

Mrs. Sinus Hansen explained the creed and purpose of missionaries with a reading entitled "Bearsers of the Good News" by Ethelyn Burn.

During the business session Mrs. Glen White was appointed secretary of Christian education, in charge of promoting good reading habits, and Mrs. C. Harding Veigel was appointed secretary of social relations, in charge of promotion of good will and Christian aid to other races.

A special feature of the meeting was the unanimous decision to contribute money to the Sustaining Membership fund of Missionary World Service, in honor of Mrs. James McGlaughlin, deceased.

Mrs. McGlaughlin was a charter member of the Missionary Society which organized in Eldena 41 years ago. Mrs. Henry Shippert, her daughter, has held office in the society for those 41 years.

The meeting was adjourned with benediction by Rev. Veigel. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Dick Johnson.

CIRCLE 1 TO MEET
COMPTON—Circle 1 will meet with Mabel Cook, Thursday, at 8 p.m. Assisting hostesses will be Margaret Archer and Lucille Bauer.

The program, arranged by Mary Eakle, will be "Facts About Polio."

CHURCH GROUP TO MEET
STEWART—The Mighty Pleasant group of the Methodist church will meet Wednesday evening with Mrs. Amos Richardson.

Bill Reed, Boston Braves' rookie second baseman, hit a double his first time at bat in the National League this season.

Eldena Cubs To Be in Ceremonial

ELDENA—During the past week the Chippewa tribe of Eldena Cub Scouts met and received material and patterns for Indian costumes. Mothers are busy making the costumes for participation in the Indian Ceremonial to be held at Sinnissippi park, Sterling, Sunday afternoon.

Double Shower

ELDENA—Thursday evening the Homebuilders class of Eldena Evangelical United Brethren church sponsored a double pink and blue shower for the Al Schwandts and Ken Quinns of Eldena with 32 attending. The men had a horse-shoe contest in the church yard, while the women played indoor games and viewed opening of gifts. Refreshments of cake, jello and coffee were served.

TO ELECT OFFICERS
OREGON—Election of officers and a wienner roast will be held by the Ogle County 4-H Federation Thursday night, June 19, at White Pines State park.

To Present 13 Selections in First Program

POLO—Some 50 high school musicians will present the first Polo band concert of the summer season at 8 p.m. Wednesday in Central park.

Special numbers are to be presented during the summer program by Joyce Wales, the Teen-Tone trio, Shirley Wisner and others. Miss Wales plays the vibra-harp and Miss Wisner is a vocalist.

Tomorrow night's program will include such selections as "Washington Post March," "Pilgrims Chorus" from "Tannhauser," "In the Good Old Summertime" and "Wheel of Fortune."

A variety of music has been planned for the programs to be presented each week, according to Director Parrett. A total of 13 selections will be presented Wednesday night.

Rehearsal for tomorrow night's concert was held Monday night at the high school.

Oregon Site of Air Observers Training Meet

OREGON—An air force training team will be at the Oregon courthouse at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday to conduct a two-hour training session for members of air observation staffs in Ogle and surrounding counties.

All phases of observing and reporting will be included in the training session. A new system of estimating distance and altitude of aircraft will be dealt with.

The training team will provide observers with actual practice in reporting procedures using field training equipment.

Civil defense in action will be explained by a new air defense film to be shown at the session.

FRANKLIN GROVE—Officers of the Franklin Grove Lions club will be installed tonight in the high school gym. The evening also had been designated "ladies' night." Dinner will be served at 7 p. m.

Col. John E. Earle, Dixon, Lions district governor, will be speaker.

New officers are:
President, Benjamin F. Smith; secretary, Scott L. Stultz; first vice president, Herman Greenfield, jr.; second vice president, Douglas Stultz; third vice president, LeRoy J. Miller; lion tamer, Galen Naylor; tall twister, Max Patrick, and assistant tall twister, Harmon Peaco.

Directors are Milford Cruse, Lowell Trottnow, Harvey Brucker, and William Knox.

Clarence Hodge is retiring president.

Dinner will be served by the Presbyterian Ladies Aid.

The Lions Ladies quartette will give musical selections, also the Lions junior chorus. A reading will be given by Thelma Fair.

The address and presentation of awards will be given by District Governor Earle.

Installing officer is Zone Chairman Albert Gross.

New Insect Killer on The Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Animals and insects and handy aids for home and office all come into the new products field this week.

On the insect front is a double-threat killer for the home. It is an oil containing a pyrethrum insecticide that can be burned or sprayed to get rid of flying insects that break up front porch parties or picnic day or night.

The oil is burned in an old-fashioned oil lamp with a reflector. That repels the little nuisances. If they persist, uncrew the lamp from the base, fit the base with the hand-operated plunger-type spray, and push vigorously. The spray is a contact killer. Distributed by Rubicon Inc. of New York.

For bigger and better pigs, Commercial Solvents Corp. of Terre Haute, Ind., has developed a pellet containing 1,000 units each of bacitracin which is described as "a favored antibiotic for stimulating growth of nursing pigs."

Experiments at the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville showed the pellets averaged 11 per cent heavier at weaning time. The pellets come with injector equipment designed for use by the swine grower.

Pitney-Bowes of Stamford, Conn., has just put on the market an electric office folding machine weighing only 23½ pounds that can be operated on top of a desk. It is 12 by 7½ by 22½ inches. The machine can be made any one of eight basic types of folds for a wide number of sizes and weights of paper at a rate up to 5,000 sheets an hour. Set-up time for a new fold is about one minute.

Propose Asylum For Youths Who Flee E. Germany

BONN, Germany, (AP)—The head of a German anti-Communist organization proposed today that the West offer asylum to East German youths who dodge the Communist army draft, and thus rob the Reds of many recruits.

Dr. Theo. Friedenau, a lawyer who heads the Committee of Free Jurists, told reporters such an offer would be a dangerous threat to East German Communist plans to build an army.

Dr. Friedenau said 80 per cent of East Germany's adults were anti-Communist, but that the "Communist disease" was more acute among the youth, 30 per cent of whom, he said, were Communists or fellow travelers. He estimated that 70 per cent of East German youth opposed military service and would do anything to avoid an East German draft.

Report Ottawa Jet Pilot Safe

REPORT—TOKYO (AP)—Col. Albert W. Schinz, deputy wing commander of the 51st fighter interceptor wing, reported missing when he failed to return from an F-86 Sabre jet sweep over extreme Northwest Korea May 1, has been recovered and is in good health, Far East air force headquarters said today.

Schinz, Ottawa, Ill., was in a fight with Communist MIG-15s north of Namsong. He became separated from his wingman and failed to return from the mission, the air force said.

His present whereabouts was not disclosed.

Garfield Not Broke

NEW YORK (AP)—Actor John Garfield, at first reported to have died almost broke, left an estate estimated at $100,000.

This estimate appeared on a petition for probate of the will, filed yesterday in Surrogate's court.

Garfield, who died of a heart ailment May 21 at the age of 39, left most of the estate to his widow, Mrs. Roberta Garfield. She was named executrix.

COOL PLANNING

WASHINGTON (AP)—Units of the First Marine division on the front lines in Korea will get ice cream three times a week this summer.

Announcing this today, the marine corps said it was possible through use of insulated bags, used last winter to carry hot rations. It said each bag will keep five gallons of ice cream hard for eight hours.

DEAF MAN PERFECTS MIDGET HEARING AID

Mr. H. A. Lyons of Peoria, Ill., who himself has been hard of hearing for twenty years, has perfected a new hearing aid that can be worn in secret.

With this small aid, even your closest friends will never know how you hear so perfectly. Voices, the radio and even the ticking of the clock sound natural.

It is suggested if interested for yourself or a friend, write Mr. Lyons at 400C South Washington Street, Peoria, Illinois. He will be glad to send full information.

Sergeant Weds Girl He First Saw at Age 11

CAGLIARI, SARDINIA (AP)—A former U.S. air force sergeant today married the Sardinian girl he first saw during World War II, when she was 11 years old.

The bridegroom is Robert Maurice Erickson, 31, of Sioux Falls, S. D., now an employee of the U.S. war department in Washington. His bride is Rosalba Murgia, 19.

They were married in the little church of Santa Avendrace, on Cagliari's outskirts, where Erickson in 1944, watched little Rosalba receive her first communion.

After a reception at Rosalba's home, the couple planned a short honeymoon in Italy. Erickson said they would live at Falls Church, Va., a few miles from Washington.

Oldest Amateur Photog Is Dead

NEW YORK (AP)—Miss Alice Austin, 86, one of the oldest amateur woman photographers in the United States, died yesterday of a heart ailment.

Her ability with a camera rescued her from poverty at the age of 78, when she was homeless and penniless and confined to a wheel chair in the Staten Island poorhouse.

The 1929 stock market crash had wiped out her family fortune.

In 1945 her photographs and negatives were turned over to the State Island historical museum, where, three years later, their value was perceived. They were brought forth, and through their sale to various institutions and publications Miss Austin was restored to financial comfort.

Trusting Wife Now Knows Hubby's Secret

GLASGOW, Scotland (AP)—A trusting Glasgow wife said her husband slept away from home for 11 years "but I never suspected the truth."

The truth turned out to be that 57-year-old Mailman Peter Miller had set himself up a second home—complete with second wife—and kept up the two on the equivalent of $20 a week.

At first he used to tell his legal wife he was staying with friends for the weekend, then it was every night of the week.

"But every morning about 10 o'clock he would arrive home and make breakfast," his legal wife said when Miller was charged with theft and bigamy in Glasgow sheriff's court.

"He was a very good man in the house. When I used to complain about him not coming home at night, he threatened to leave altogether. So I just said nothing at all about it," the legal Mrs. Miller said.

Miller gave his legal wife $8.40, his other wife $511.20—and kept the odd cents for himself.

He might never have been caught if he had not started robbing the mails, to "give these ladies some little extra benefits," his counsel said.

Miller was jailed six months for bigamy and stealing $112 out of mail packets.

First Bank Holdup

GUERNSEY, Channel Islands, (AP)—Guernsey had its first bank robbery yesterday. A raider grabbed 600 pounds ($1,680) from a branch bank.

Crime is so rare here that when a murder occurred some years ago the trial was almost over before anyone remembered a medieval law still in force saying murderers must be executed in public. The island's parliament met hurriedly and amended the law to specify that murderers be sent to England for hanging. The trial ended in a conviction and the man was hanged in Winchester, Eng.

Dulles Wants U. S. to Make Stand Clear

BALTIMORE (AP)—John Foster Dulles called upon the United States today to "make clear the conditions under which our retaliatory striking power would be used" against Soviet aggression.

Such a statement of intentions, said the Republican architect of the Japanese peace treaty, "would reassure our friends, who now fear we may recklessly start an atomic war in which they would be the first victims."

It would also, Dulles believes, "effectively deter our enemies, for they would know in advance what to expect and avoid such miscalculations as produced the Korean war and which, if uncertainty continues, could produce a far greater disaster."

Dulles' recommendations were voiced in an address at the 74th commencement exercises at Johns Hopkins university, which conferred upon the statesman an honorary doctor of laws degree.

News Raises Price

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Daily News, whose circulation of more than two million is the largest for a daily newspaper in this country, will raise its weekday price from 3 cents to 4 cents starting June 16.

Increased newsprint prices and other production costs made the boost necessary, the News said. The 5-cent price outside the city limits will remain unchanged.
